

ROLE MODELS IN THE WORKPLACE

Group Discussion topics

Who is someone you admire and why?

Have you ever been inspired by a role model? If so, who was it and how did they inspire you?

How do you think, we as employees, can challenge authority in a respectful way?

In what ways does having a positive role model affect one's self-esteem?

Can you define yourself using three words or phrases?

What qualities do you think make for a good role model?

Do you believe integrity is an important trait for a role model to have? Why or why not?

How do you think social media influences our self-image and perception of role models?

Can you think of any famous people who are considered role models? Describe what can we learn from them.

How do you think having a strong role model can help shape your future personal and professional goals?

